To Conquer

In "Gone With The Wind" at the funeral of Gerald O'Hara – a heavy drinker who dies in an alcohol related accident – his prospective son-in-law gives this eulogy: "There warn't nothin' that come to him from the outside that could lick him. He warn 'scared of the English government when they wanted to hang him. He just lit out and left home. And when he come to this country...he warn't scared to tackle this section when it was part wild and the Injuns had just been run out of it. He made a big plantation out of the wilderness. And when the war come on and his money begun to go, he warn't scared to be pore agin. And when the Yankees came through Tara and might of burnt him out or killed him, he warn't fazed a bit and he warn't licked neither...That's why I say he had our good points... "All you all and me, too, are like him. We got the same weakness and failin'. There ain't nothin' that walks can lick us, any more than it could lick him, not Yankees nor Carpetbaggers nor hard times nor high taxes nor even downright starvation. But that weakness that's in our hearts can lick us in the time it takes to bat your eye".

The world of "self" is truly the toughest frontier. Julius Caesar, Attila the Hun, Alexander the Great and a plethora of others have set out to conquer the world. It is said that when Alexander saw the breadth of his domain he wept for there were no more worlds to conquer.

You may have set out to do some conquering yourself. It may be the future, it may be your profession or family or a host of other areas. Paul told Titus.

"Likewise urge the young men to be sensible; (self controlled)..."

ALL YOU CAN EAT

Shortly after we moved to the Kansas City area we had a visit from one of oldest sons' friends from our former neighborhood in Florida. He was what I considered a "near savant" and his math skills were beyond my understanding! His "people" skills, on the other hand, were very interesting! Unlike our family he had grown up with just one sister so some aspects of living with a family of seven were, I'm sure, a bit troublesome to him! During the mealtime prayer he would carefully move the serving dishes so that they were all close to him! He had mathematically figured out that there SURELY could not be enough for him as he counted around the table! I was slightly insulted by this – I mean, really, I LOVED feeding people! There was ALWAYS enough food at our table and MORE if you wanted!

How often do we panic at the table that God has set before us? We pull everything that we think is important closer to us and fail to see that His buffet is overloaded with the bounty that He is just waiting to serve up to us. We frantically hoard only to miss the provision and the fellowship that he desires to have with us.

Philippians 4:19 "And my God will supply every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus"
